Foreclosure Activity Drops to 5-Year Low in September

Foreclosure filings — default notices, scheduled auctions and bank repossessions — were reported on 180,427 U.S. properties in September, a decrease of 7 percent from the previous month and down 16 percent from September 2011. September's total was the lowest U.S. total since July 2007. The decrease in September helped drop the third quarter foreclosure numbers to the lowest level since the fourth quarter of 2007. Foreclosure filings were reported on 531,576 U.S. properties during the quarter, a decrease of 5 percent from the second quarter and a decrease of 13 percent from the third quarter of 2011.

Here are some of the most recent Investment opportunities in the area.

Swing State Housing Scorecard: Narrow Obama Victory in Virginia

Barack Obama broke the mold back in 2008, becoming the first Democrat in the past 10 presidential elections to count Virginia in the win column, reportedly thanks to changing demographics in the region. Whether he can muster a repeat performance this time around depends on a number of factors, including the condition of the state's housing market.
